Privacy notice

The Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000 and the Disability Services Act 2006 allow the collection of personal information to assess your eligibility to be issued with a blue/exemption card and a yellow card exemption.

Information will be provided to Queensland Police, and may be provided to police, courts, prosecuting authorities or other authorised agencies as part of the screening process. The Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services (the Department) may also share your information with police, courts, prosecuting authorities or other authorised agencies as part of their screening process.

Information may also be given to:

- certain disciplinary bodies to obtain relevant disciplinary information; and/or
- your employer, any supervisory body, or other person you have authorised to discuss your application on your behalf.

Personal information will only be provided to other persons or agencies with your permission or where required by law.

After your application for a blue card has been finalised, relevant information regarding your application will be forwarded to the Department to process your request for a yellow card exemption. As part of this process, advice will be provided to the Department confirming whether you have been issued with a blue card, whether that blue card has been suspended or cancelled and provide advice regarding the need for the Department to undertake further employment screening. If you have criminal history, advice will be provided to the Department that further employment screening is required. The information provided will not include specifics of a person's criminal history.

Important information

You can withdraw your consent to screening at any time before a decision is made.

#Disqualified person

It is an offence for a disqualified person to sign a blue card application form.

A disqualified person is someone who:

- has been convicted[^] of a disqualifying offence, which includes having sex with a child (irrespective of the type of relationship e.g. teenage boyfriend/girlfriend, unlawful carnal knowledge) or other child-related sex or pornography offences or the murder of a child (irrespective of the penalty and regardless of when and where it occurred); or
- is the subject of:
 - reporting obligations under the Child Protection (Offender Reporting) Act 2004; or
 - an offender prohibition order under the Child Protection (Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2008; or
 - a disqualification order issued by a court prohibiting them from applying for or holding a blue card; or
 - a sexual offender order under the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003.

*Non-conviction charge means, whether a person was charged as an adult or a child, a charge: that has been withdrawn; that has been the subject of a nolle prosequi, a no true bill or a submission of no evidence to offer; that led to a conviction that was quashed on appeal; or upon which a person was acquitted or disposed of by a court otherwise than by way of conviction.

[^]Conviction/convicted means a finding of guilt by a court, or the acceptance of a plea of guilty by a court, whether or not a conviction is recorded and regardless of when and where it occurred.

A disqualified person can apply to be declared eligible to apply for a blue card in certain limited circumstances.
